1. Foreign tax paid per share is the amount available to you, as a tax credit or tax deduction. Foreign source income per share is the amount per share of income dividends attributable to foreign securities held by the fund, plus any foreign taxes withheld. The amounts reported include foreign source qualified dividends that have not been adjusted for the rate differential applicable to such dividend income. Foreign source qualified dividends per share is the amount of foreign source qualified dividends, plus any foreign taxes withheld on these dividends. These amounts represent the portion of the foreign source income reported to you that was derived from qualified foreign securities held by the fund. Qualified dividends are taxed at reduced long-term capital gain tax rates.
2. The fund is scheduled to change its name to Franklin Global Allocation Fund effective February 1, 2021. Future dates are subject to change.
3. Effective August 14, 2020, this fund was liquidated.
4. Classes A1 and C1 are closed to new investors.
